

Task Description: Your task is to create a Collaborative Document Editing System

Build a collaborative document [MS word document] editing system using React.js and Express.js.

Implement real-time text editing with WebSocket communication.

Include user authentication to manage document ownership and access control.

Design a user-friendly interface for creating, editing, and collaborating on documents.